Registration on Part II of the
New Zealand Kennel Club Register of Dogs

OBEDIENCE AND AGILITY

Dogs that are not and cannot be registered on the New Zealand Kennel Club Purebred Register of dogs must be registered on Part II of the New Zealand Kennel Club Register of Dogs if they wish to compete in:

- Obedience Open Trials or Obedience Championship Tests
- Obedience Working Trials
- Agility Events
- Any other recognised activity requiring registration

NOTES

Registration on Part II of the New Zealand Kennel Club register of dogs qualifies the dog for competition in the above fixtures and the award of any titles or certificates gained but for no other purposes.

All dogs registered on Part I (Purebred) registry compete using their Purebred registered name and number and are not registered on Part II of the registry.

In Addition to the dog being registered all owners must also be members of the New Zealand Kennel Club to compete in the above activities.
